

COPPER BASIN MINE PREPARING TO SINK

Winze to Be Continued in Rich Ore
While Cross Cut Will be Run
From the Old Shaft.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Within the next thirty days, the Commercial Mining Company holdings in Copper Basin will be the center of the most extensive system of practical mine development that has ever been done in that section. This announcement was made yesterday by Major A. J. Pickrell, in charge of the property.

In speaking yesterday of the plans outlined for immediate action, Major Pickrell stated that there is no question but what the Commercial has passed the problematical stage and that the ore bodies proven are so extensive and of such high values in copper, as to warrant the beginning development immediately on the lines endorsed by Dr. James Douglas, James S. Douglas, and George Kingdon, all of whom were at the works a few weeks ago. The hoisting plant was steamed up yesterday where the 500 foot shaft was sunk last year (and when unwatered cross-cutting will begin to tap the ore body determined in the winze in the Garbarino tunnel).

It has also been decided to install a hoist in the tunnel over the winze, which will be furnished power by an air compressor. The necessary machinery for this purpose is now on the road to the works. The winze reached a depth of about 66 feet, and the purpose is to continue this to depth and to drift as well as crosscut.

It was at this point where the big strike occurred less than three months ago, and which has aroused new interest in that district, in fact the discovery has elicited much favorable comment from copper mining men of note.

In reviewing what has transpired since the strike was made, Major Pickrell states that the tenth car of high grade ore has been shipped to Douglas, and as soon as transportation facilities are available the tonnage will be doubled. The present output from the winze exceeds the capacity of freighting teams at hand, but this will be remedied when the additional service is introduced next week.

From a mineralogical standpoint, condition in the winze and drifts are favorable for permanency, a chalcopirite condition coming in recently. Speaking of future work from the main shaft point, Major Pickrell states that he will drive a crosscut to the west, with the intention of cutting into the ore bodies lying to the north and which will give indications of striking it to the south. The work will proceed from the bottom, about 500 feet deep, and the exploitation progresses, a depth of about 700 feet will be given.

New buildings are to be erected immediately and an ample force of miners employed, in fact, the old time camp is to be rehabilitated on the lines which conditions justify.

YOUNG WOMAN HAS GOLD BARAS SOUVENIR

Went Prospecting And Found What May Be Bonanza

(From Sunday's Daily)

Considerable comment is heard in mining circles of Pine Flat over the discovery of a mine that was made a few weeks ago by a young lady named Miss Della Hissby, the niece of Dr. William Woodburn, president of the New Cumberland Mining company, who with her father has been sojourning at that camp for the last two months. Miss Hissby had occasion to go strolling to the mountains adjacent, and imbued as she was to not return to Omaha, without having accomplished something out of the ordinary in sightseeing tales to entertain her friends, donned a khaki raiment and began prospecting with all the ardor of a Hassayamper.

The search for the El Dorado was diligently conducted, and on the fourth day some outcroppings were cut into, that contained big values in free gold. Some miners in the camp went to the spot and pronounced the discovery as an attractive one. The practical solution of the find took place later, when about 1200 pounds were sent to the mill for treatment. The results showed that amalgam to the value of $1945 was returned, and the little bar was in her possession yesterday as she left for home.

She has named the discovery the "Nebraska Queen," on the suggestion of an admirer at the above camp, and stated that she contemplates returning to the Flat later, in the meantime organizing a company of stockholders in Omaha to be composed solely of her young lady acquaintances.

Miss Hissby and father are very favorably impressed with Arizona, and in speaking of her outing among the mines, in the finest climate ever experienced, said it was "the trip of her life."

TWO REPUBLICAN CLUBS FORMED LAST NIGHT

Enthusiastic Friends Of
Taft and Roosevelt
Organize

(From Sunday's Daily)

The Taft and Roosevelt Republicans last night held rallies and effected permanent organizations of clubs named for their favorites. The Taft people met in the spacious parlors of the Congress Hotel and a crowd of 75 enthusiastic supporters of the President was present. Another meeting will be held at 8 p. m., Tuesday, May 7.

The following officers were chosen to look after the welfare of Mr. Taft in the campaign: E. J. Mitchell, president; Chas. T. Joslin, vice president; C. T. Martin, secretary-treasurer. An executive committee of seven members will be appointed by the president to act with the officers.

The Roosevelt meeting was held in the Odd Fellows Hall and about an equal number were present and using their best efforts for Mr. Roosevelt. E. S. Clark was elected president; J. C. Bradbury, secretary; and J. M. W. Moore, treasurer. It was decided to hold meetings every Saturday, and a special program was arranged for next Saturday's meeting to which the ladies are invited. Speeches were made by H. E. Marshall, N. A. Vyne, A. L. Hammond, and E. S. Clark.

From each of the meetings came reports of enthusiasm and it is said that the speeches were of a high order at each meeting. The two clubs are composed of representative citizens and that the battle is to be an interesting one is plainly to be seen.

MAJOR GENERAL COMING TO SEE FT. WHIPPLE

Major General Arthur Murray, U. S. Army, commanding the western division, will arrive in Prescott this afternoon from San Francisco, according to telegrams received yesterday. He will be met at Ash Fork by F. M. Murphy, W. A. Drake, Lieutenant Schillerstrom, of Fort Whipple, and others, and the party will be brought to the city in the special car of Mr. Murphy. General Murray, is one of the five major generals of the army, and is making an inspection of all military posts in his command which embraces practically all territory west of the Rocky Mountains. He contemplates remaining several days, and his observations will be particularly of interest, for the reason that this will be the first official visit of an officer of his rank to this post, with the exception of that made a few months ago by General Leonard Wood, chief of staff. This will also be the first visit of General Murray to Arizona.

Other Changes Under Way At Well
Known Inn

(From Sunday's Daily)

Ed. Shumate of Hotel St. Michael, yesterday announced many important changes in the future administration of that popular hostelry, which will be inaugurated tomorrow, and which is in keeping with the principals he has diligently observed to afford the public the best accommodations and the most competent attaches that can be secured. Charles Snover will assume the responsibility as manager, while Mrs. Snover will be the matron of the hotel. The selection of Mr. Snover should prove a popular one because he possesses a pleasing personality and has had a successful career in similar positions with some of the best hotels in the county. For over three years before coming to this city with his sister, for the benefit of the health of the latter, he was the head room clerk of the famous Metropole and the Pontchartrain hotels of Detroit, as well as the assistant steward of the Detroit club. He has followed the profession from boyhood.

Walter Coleman, son of the mining operator, will assume the position of night clerk, while Lester Martin goes on the day side. Harry H. Colvig will be the accountant. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harter retain charge of the dining room, where they have maintained their splendid reputation as caterers.

MANY PRISONERS ARE TAKEN TO FLORENCE

Sheriff Keeler With A
Force of Deputies
In Charge

(From Sunday's Daily)

Ten sentences were imposed by Judge Smith yesterday morning on the convening of the superior court to the state penitentiary, for crimes each were convicted of during the week, and with those sent to the penitentiary earlier in the week, totalled twenty. The following were the unfortunate ones:

John Hemingway, grand larceny, one year. He robbed Michael Cooney of a gold watch and chain, money and other valuables.

Ignacio Medina, grand larceny, four years. Medina plead guilty to stealing a cow from the range of Nelson Puntunney in Big Chino valley. His associates in the crime, Francisco Raia and Gregorio Jimenez, plead not guilty and were tried and found guilty. Both received sentences of three and one-half years yesterday, which is regarded as significant, in view of Medina admitting his guilt for some ulterior purpose.

James Sinclair and Robert W. Leonard, robbery, ten years each. Both were tried and found guilty of a cowardly and brutal crime, holding up G. B. Recchia on the grade of the Verde Valley railway, and after taking all the money and valuables on the man's person, lashed him to a tree and left the country.

Louis Green, burglary in the second degree, one year. He broke the seal on a box car at Jerome Junction and stole a case of whiskey and other goods.

Henry Moore, burglary, one year. Broke the seal of a box car at Jerome Junction and stole goods therefrom.

Gabriel and Jose Lopez, convicted of robbery and grand larceny, twelve years each. They entered a restaurant at Seligman and seriously wounded a Chinaman, robbing him of quite a sum of money. They then stole two horses from J. W. Sullivan, and were captured several days later in Maricopa county.

Simon Escalante, grand larceny, four years. He robbed a Mexican in this city of money, jewelry and other valuables.

The above offenders were taken to the penitentiary at Florence yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Keeler, and special deputies, C. K. Scholer, E. S. Curtis, B. Anderson and W. B. Gunnell.

LADY RECOGNIZED BY WISCONSIN GOVERNOR

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. M. G. Burns has received the agreeable news of the appointment of her sister, Mrs. Ada F. Howie, of Elm Grove, Wis., as a member of the board of agriculture of that state. The distinction accorded this capable woman is interesting, for it is the first time in the history of making selections for a responsible duty that her sex has been recognized in that state. In commending the action taken by the governor in appointing this woman to such a responsible duty, where there are but four members, the Milwaukee Journal says:

"Mrs. Howie has a dairy farm, and is a well known figure on programs at farmer institutes. She had charge of the poultry exhibit at the last state fair. For many years she has been an exhibitor at the state fair, and all who know her say that there is no woman in the state better fitted to be a member of the board. Mrs. Howie has traveled through Europe, and made a practical study of farming and dairying to the minutest detail. In the United States, also, she has traveled and lectured over the middle states, and is generally regarded as an authority on farming and kindred pursuits. Her appointment is to be highly commended."

DEPUTY CAMPBELL IS BADLY WOUNDED

Cut in Arm by H. A. Bickford, Who Is in Jail in Default Of
$2,000 Bond.

(From Tuesday's daily)

H. A. Bickford was bound over to the grand jury yesterday by Judge McLane in the sum of $2000 for assaulting Deputy Sheriff Fred Campbell with a deadly weapon, while the latter was attempting to arrest the former in West Prescott on Sunday night at about 9:30 o'clock. The incident is said to have been brought about by Bickford threatening his two daughters, and telephone calls were made to the sheriff's office to prevent him from carrying out his alleged designs. When Deputies Campbell and Baker arrived on the scene, the former entered the yard in the rear of the Cook residence, and Bickford, who later slashed at the officer with a pocket knife and inflicted a wound across his left arm over six inches long, which narrowly missed the main artery.

It is said that Bickford also made two attempts to reach the stomach of Deputy Campbell, but the blade only penetrated the clothing at two points. Loss of blood prevented the officer from continuing, the chase after Bickford, the latter running for shelter into the brush. Later Under Sheriff Raible and Jailer Burns appeared and traced Bickford to the Valley View house, where he was taken into custody without further trouble. The entire neighborhood was aroused over the affair.

Bickford up to last night was unable to furnish bondsmen and remains in jail. The physician attending Deputy Campbell states that his patient had a very close call.
